VSNA - A non-profit , Tax Exempt, Spiritual Organization in USA & Canada 501(c)(3)

VSNA Outstanding Women's Award – 2018

With a view to acknowledge and appreciate the outstanding service rendered to the organization by a VSNA member, the VSNA's Board of Directors would like to present the VSNA Outstanding Women's Award. This award recognizes the meritorious contributions made by the member in exemplifying, up-holding and fostering the Veerashaiva culture, life and heritage in our adopted land and in enabling the VSNA organization to fulfill its cherished goals and objectives succinctly stated in the By-laws.

To receive consideration for this award by the Award Committee appointed by the BOD, the nominee shall strictly adhere to the criteria listed below. It shall be the responsibility of the nominee and the nominating member to see that they scrupulously follow the stated stipulations. Incomplete nominations shall be automatically disqualified and no further correspondence on this issue shall be entertained by the Central VSNA.

1. To receive this award, the nominee shall have rendered exemplary service in preserving, propagating and protecting the principles and practice of the Veerashaiva way of life, legacy and heritage in the subcontinent of North America.
2. To be eligible to be nominated for this award, an individual shall have served with distinction the VSNA at the National Level for at least five years, in particular in organizing children's and women's activities, inspiring and motivating her peers to reach the unreachable in the cause of and on behalf of the VSNA.
3. The nomination shall be accompanied by a brief resume of the honoree, a brief but documented evidence of the outcome of the service to the Veerashaiva community at large of North America and to the VSNA itself.
4. Direct or indirect canvassing by the candidate for the award shall automatically result in disqualification.
5. Nominations should be made by at least by two good standing VSNA members who are not related to the nominee.
